ST. THOMAS'S HOSPITAL, ALBERT

EMBANKMENT, WESTMINSTER BRIDGE, S.E.—The Session 1877 and 1878 will commence on Monday, October 1, when an ADDRESS will be delivered by Mr. WAGSTAFFE, at 4 P.M. Gentlemen are informed that the Admission Fees to Practice and Lectures may be paid in one of three ways, entitling students to unlimited attendance:—1st. Payment of 100l. on entrance; 2nd. Payment of 100 guineas, one-half on entrance, and remainder at beginning of next Session; 3rd. Payment by three annual instalments of 40, 40, and 20 guineas. The fee for Dental students is for the two years 40l. in one payment, or by instalments of 40l. the first, and 10l. the second year. Special Entries may be made to any Lectures, or to Hospital Practice; and a modified scale of fees is arranged for students entering in second or subsequent years.

There are special classes for the 1st M.B. and preliminary scientific examinations of the University of London, and private classes for matriculation and other examinations. Gentlemen can attend the above classes without becoming students to the Hospital. Qualified practitioners are admitted to the Hospital, practice, lectures, and library, on payment of 10 guineas for unlimited attendance.

The alteration of the hour for visiting the wards to 2 P.M. will be found a great convenience to students residing at a distance.

Prizes and Appointments.—Two Entrance Science Scholarships of 40l. and 40l. will be awarded to first year's students in October, after an examination in Botany, Chemistry, Physics, and Zoology, similar to the preliminary scientific of University of London. First Year's Prizes:—Winter.—The William Pitt Scholarship of 30l.; College prizes, 20l. and 10l. Summer.—College Prizes of 15l., 10l., and 5l. Second Year's Prizes:—Winter.—The Musgrave Scholarship of 40 guineas, tenable for two years. College Prizes of 20l. and 10l. Summer.—College Prizes of 15l., 10l., and 5l. Third Year's Prizes, 20l., 15l., and 10l. There are also awarded the following silver and gold medals, &c., viz.:—The Cheselden Medal, the Solly medals and prize; the Treasurer's Gold Medal, and the Grainger Prize. Two house physicians and two assistant house physicians, two house surgeons and two assistant house surgeons, and the resident apothecary are selected from students holding qualifications; an ophthalmic assistant, with a salary of 50l., is appointed; clinical clerks and dressers to in and out patients are selected from gentlemen attending the Hospital; two registrars, at an honorarium of 40l. each, are chosen from third or fourth year's students. There are numerous minor appointments of anatomical assistants, prosectors, obstetric clerks, &c., open to students without charge.

W. M. ORD, M.B., Dean.
J. W. GILLESPIE, M.D., Secretary.

Any further information will be given by Dr. Gillespie on application.

TRÜBNER &amp; CO.'S NEW WORKS.

The ENGLISH & FOREIGN PHILOSOPHICAL LIBRARY.
Volume I.A HISTORY OF MATERIALISM. By Professor F. A. LANGE. Authorised Translation from the German, by ERNEST C. THOMAS. To be completed in 3 vols. Vol. I., crown 8vo, pp. 350, cloth, price 10s. 6d.

Vols. II. and III. in preparation.

"Although it is only a few years since Lange's book was originally published, it already ranks as a classic in the philosophical literature of Germany. He was not only a man of vast learning, but had a very rare power both of analysis and generalisation; and his style is singularly clear, strong, and graceful. Nominally only a history of Materialism, it is in reality very much more. It takes in the whole development of philosophical opinion, but with especial reference to Materialism. . . . So far as he has proceeded, Mr. Thomas has done his work with great spirit and intelligence. We have tested the translation at various points, and have always found that it reflects the original freely and accurately."—Pall Mall Gazette.

"The book is marked throughout by singular ability, abounds in striking and suggestive reflections, subtle and profound discussions, felicitous and graphic descriptions of mental and social movements, both in themselves and in their mutual relations."—Scotsman.

Volume IV.

NATURAL LAW: An Essay in Ethics.

By EDITH SIMCOX. 1 vol. crown 8vo, pp. 366, cloth, 10s. 6d.

"Its merits are those of a large and general insight, animated by the desire to see the best of everything; even its errors proceed from a combination of qualities in itself rare and desirable, which may be called conscientious enthusiasm."—Pall Mall Gazette.

Vols. V. and VI.

In 2 vols. post 8vo, pp. 280 and 290, cloth, price 15s.

The CREED OF CHRISTENDOM: its Foundation Contrasted with its Superstructure. By W. R. GREGG. Fifth Edition, with a New Introduction.

[In a few days.

"Professional reproaches against a book so manly and modest, so evidently truth-loving, so high-minded and devout as this of Mr. Gregg's, are but a melancholy imbecility. . . . No candid reader of the 'Creed of Christendom' can close the book without the clear acknowledgment that it is a model of honest investigation and clear exposition, conceived in the true spirit of serious and faithful research."—Westminster Review.

The PHYSICAL BASIS OF MIND. By GEORGE HENRY LEWES. With Illustrations. 8vo, pp. 508, cloth, 16s.

CONTENTS:—The Nature of Life—The Nervous Mechanism—Animal Automatism—The Reflex Theory.

With Dialogues and Vocabulary. By EDWIN ARNOLD, M.A., C.S.I., F.R.G.S. Post 8vo, pp. 80, cloth, 2s. 6d.

"A . . . grammar and vocabulary by the aid of which it would be quite possible to acquire a colloquial knowledge of the Turkish language within six weeks."—Times.

ELEMENTARY GRAMMAR of the TURKISH LANGUAGE. With a few Easy Exercises. By F. L. HOPKINS, M.A., Fellow and Tutor of Trinity Hall, Cambridge. Crown 8vo, pp. 48, cloth, 3s. 6d.The TURKISH CAMPAIGNER'S VADE-MECUM of OTTOMAN COLLOQUIAL LANGUAGE; containing a concise Ottoman Grammar, a carefully selected Vocabulary, alphabetically arranged, in Two Parts—English and Turkish, and Turkish and English; also, a few Familiar Dialogues. The whole in English characters. By J. W. REDHOUSE, F.R.A. Oblong, pp. iv-332, cloth, 6s.

London: TRÜBNER &amp; Co., Ludgate Hill.

NOTICE.—IMPORTANT NEW WORK BY MR. GALLENGA.

TWO YEARS of the EASTERNQUESTION. By A. GALLENGA (of the Times), Author of "Italy Revisited," "Country Life in Piedmont," "The Invasion of Denmark," &c. 2 vols. 8vo, 28s.

The TIMES says:—"A more thorough exposure of the rottenness of the Turkish System was never penned; and Mr. Freeman and Mr. Gladstone must rejoice when they peruse page after page which, to use a familiar expression, does not leave on the Turk's 'the face of a dog.' . . . But Mr. Gallenga did not visit Constantinople to quarrel but to observe the various phases of the Eastern Question as it passed from diplomatic remonstrances to provincial outbreaks, to Bulgarian atrocities, to the Serbian war, to the Armistice, to the Conference, to renewed Protocols, and at last to this war between Russia and Turkey. . . . Extraordinary opportunities fell into Mr. Gallenga's way, and in many ways the best recent contribution to the literature of the Eastern Question."

The OBSERVER says:—"The great merit of these two interesting volumes is that they present the grave considered judgment of an intelligent, thoughtful observer on the internal condition of Turkey. . . . For any one who would really know the social forces now at work within the Turkish Empire, and who would aspire to make any intelligent forecast as to its future fate, these volumes are invaluable guides. . . . The book is at once fascinating and amusing, and in many ways the best recent contribution to the literature of the Eastern Question."

The GRAPHIC says:—"Mr. Gallenga's letters are most interesting in every way—bright with the genuine freshness of a correspondent who finds himself on (to him) new ground, and enjoys as much as any of his readers a moonlight ride round Stamboul, a visit to the fields of Troy, a sight of the Sultan opening his Parliament; valuable for descriptions, by a trained observer, of scenes and institutions which fall beneath his eye, and speculations by a well-informed politician, on the scruples and suspicions which have ended in keeping Europe impotent while Russia and Turkey are closing hand to hand. . . . Two volumes, altogether, which bid fair to acquire permanent value as graphic records taken on the spot of some of the most dramatic incidents in history."

The ACADEMY says:—"Mr. Gallenga has given a detailed account of the circumstances which led to the present war, beginning from the commencement of the insurrection in the Herzegovina. As he resided at Constantinople during the whole of this period, and had special facilities for obtaining information as the correspondent of the Times newspaper, his narrative is of great value. He went there with an unprejudiced mind, having, in fact, given but little attention to the subject until that time. His sketches of the principal actors on the scene, whether Turkish sultans and pashas or ambassadors from other States, are remarkably graphic, especially that of General Ignatieff. . . . Mr. Gallenga also initiates us into most of the questions relating to Turkey, on which the reader desires an unbiased opinion—the good and bad of the character of the Turks themselves, their finances, their reforms, their relation to the subject races, and the principal influences that are at work among them. . . . But the interest of his narrative culminates in that group of events which are exciting enough for any work of fiction—the insurrection which overthrew Abd-ul-Aziz, and his subsequent suicide; the derangement of mind and ultimate ejection from the throne of his unfortunate successor; and the massacre of the Pashas by Hassan the Circassian. . . . We also obtain valuable information on such subjects as the sale of slaves at Constantinople, the admission of Christian evidence in the law-courts, and the treatment of the royaux."

E. MOXON, SON &amp; CO'S ANNOUNCEMENTS.

In the Press, and shortly will be published, crown 8vo, 400 pp., 10s. 6d.
LIVES OF FAMOUS POETS. By WILLIAM MICHAEL ROSSETTI. Forming a Companion Volume to "MOXON'S POPULAR POETS."

E. MOXON, SON, & CO. have in preparation, and will shortly publish, an entirely New Edition of SHELLEY'S WORKS, in 3 Vols. Edited

by WILLIAM MICHAEL ROSSETTI.
"The two-volume edition of Shelley, edited by Mr. W. M. Rossetti, with memoir and notes, and published by Messrs. Moxon & Co. in 1870, has been out of print some while now; and the curious fate of being unprocurable, even in the British Museum, has befallen this book, as the Reading-room copy was stolen. It is now proposed to reissue the work at an early date; Mr. Rossetti going carefully and de novo through the task of editing, and introducing numerous modifications, additions, &c., into the memoir and notes, and indeed into the text itself, dependent sometimes upon more recent information (brought forward by himself among others), sometimes upon change of views, or the strictures of other critics. On the whole, the text will be somewhat more strictly conservative than in the previous instance. Moreover, the type itself will be larger than in the edition of 1870."—Academy.

The Fifteenth Edition (Enlarged, Corrected, and Revised throughout) of HAYDN'S DICTIONARY OF DATES, for

Universal Reference, relating to all Ages and Nations. Containing the History of the World to the Autumn of 1876. By BENJAMIN VINCENT, Librarian of the Royal Institution of Great Britain. Demy 8vo. in one thick vol. cloth, 18s.; half calf, 24s.; full calf or tree calf, 31s. 6d.

This work, as it now appears, is no longer merely a "Dictionary of Dates," though it retains the title under which its reputation was made—it is rather a Cyclopædia, with a Chronology useful alike to the Statesman, Journalist, Divine, Professional Man, Merchant, and General Reader. It is arranged in the most complete manner for the convenience of reference, and brought down to the latest date. The latter advantage was secured by the printing of an "Addenda," bringing down the chronicle in the various departments to the time of going to press.

The Times says:—"It is certainly no longer now a mere Dictionary of Dates, whatever it might have been at its first appearance, but a comprehensive dictionary or cyclopædia of general information."

"It is by far the readiest and most reliable work of the kind for the general reader within the province of our knowledge."—Standard.

Now ready, uniform with, and by the Editor of, HAYDN'S "DICTIONARY OF DATES," demy 8vo, in 1 vol. cloth, 18s.

VINCENT'S DICTIONARY OF BIOGRAPHY. By BENJAMIN VINCENT, Librarian of the Royal Institution of Great Britain, and Editor of "Haydn's Dictionary of Dates."

No book is more valuable in the student's Library, or more indispensable to all classes, from the statesman or the historian to the most ordinary of readers studying for self-improvement, than a really reliable and complete Dictionary of Biography. In preparing the present volume every care has been taken to render it in all respects a worthy companion of the world-famous "Dictionary of Dates." Accuracy, fullness, and plainness of style have been alike kept in view.

The book represents the careful and anxious labour of many years, and it will be found that Mr. Benjamin Vincent has brought down this New and Revised Edition to the very time of going to the press.

CHARLES LAMB'S WORKS.

"The editor has done much for his author by publishing some sixty new letters, by laying his hand on every scrap of Lamb's writings which could be detected, and by leaving the Essays and other works in the state in which the author has finally revised them for publication. In doing this the new editor has done his utmost for Lamb's memory."—Times.

Now ready, a Complete LIBRARY EDITION of the LIFE, LETTERS, and WRITINGS of CHARLES LAMB. Complete in 6 vols. price 42s. Edited by PERCY FITZGERALD, M.A., F.S.A. Containing the MEMOIR by TALFOURD, with Notes and Illustrations, embodying the most recent information on the subject.

This edition contains a large number of Unpublished Letters, which have been placed at the disposal of the Editor, as well as many hitherto uncollected. Also many writings of Lamb, in the shape of Criticisms, Essays, and Political Pieces, not hitherto identified.

London: E. MOXON, SON & CO., Dorset Buildings, Salisbury Square, E.C.

THE PLAYS AND POEMS OF CYRIL TOURNEUR.

Edited, with Critical Introduction and Notes, by JOHN CHURTON COLLINS.

"We are powerless to resist the spell of his barbaric harmonies, and we are forced to admit that he knew, in spite of all his crude affectations, the right way to purge the soul with pity and terror. . . . Mr. Collins has shown good taste in his critical introduction and research in his notes. In these last, the references to classic literature are much to the point. Mr. Collins has shown acumen in what he has rejected no less than in what he has retained."—A cademy.
"So much of the dramatic fire and vigour which form the special characteristics of the Elizabethan dramatists is discernible in Cyril Tourneur that it is satisfactory to see his works collected. . . . If on the one hand he may claim to have enriched the drama with characters that may compare with the best in Chapman or Marston, he has also in realism gone beyond Webster. . . . Mr. Collins has discharged completely his editorial duties, and his notes display a considerable amount of reading."—Athenaeum.
